Dear Gary,

On behalf of the Professional Liability Underwriting Society we would like to thank you for taking the time to present at the 1st Annual PLUS Professional Risk Symposium (PRS) in Atlanta earlier this month.

We value your time and your commitment to the Professional Liability profession, and believe the PLUS Symposium was stronger because of your participation. This was our first year combining the EPL/FI and E&O Symposia, and we are very pleased with the initial response from attendees. We had over 300 people registered and solid sponsorship support for this first-time event.

PLUS appreciates your willingness to share your knowledge with our members. To express our gratitude, we have enclosed noise-reduction travel headphones as our speaker gift to you.

In order to help you advance your speaking capabilities, we have also enclosed the evaluation summary of your performance at the Professional Risk Symposium. We hope this electronic evaluation process will help you assess your own performance.

Again, on behalf of PLUS, thank you for participating in the Professional Risk Symposium.

Sincerely,

Professional Risk Symposium Chairs:
